Theo and I became friends in 5th grade and lost contact the last few years, but I always considered him a good friend. He was good to me and we visited several times even after I moved away from Richmond.

Theo (Nana) my son could make a lemon find a reason to laugh. How well I remember the times you would come in my room jump on my bed and request a foot massage while you asked a million why's. Your gift and thirst for knowledge was unmeasureble. You will always be in my heart thanks for not giving up! love you to the moon and beyond.
