Sister, I am still in shock. We have been together so long and I thought we had so much more time. I remember we would always laugh about going to the studio to record our music , and we wouldnt even start getting ready until night was approaching. I know you have so many friends but I was one of the very few you called sister. We even look like blood sisters. I will miss talking to you on the phone and with both of us being of the zodiac sign Taurus we had so much in common. Our birthdays are even one day apart what are the chances of that ? Sister, I think the only thing that keeps me from crying is that you always called God your daddy, and I know you are in heaven with him. Sister, you always had my back, you listened, you cared, and you always had great advice. You are not only beautiful with some of the deepest dimples I have ever seen, and yes you could light up a room with your energy but on a deeper level it's amazing how you cared about others so much. Sister I love you and I want to say thank you for being one fantastic sister and friend.Loving you forever,Roxy
