Obituary for Jason Wesley Evans

Jason Wesley Evans was born in Los Angeles, California on August 17, 1978. He was born to Jackie and Helena Evans, and was the younger of two children.

Jason attended elementary school in Cerritos, and junior high and high school in San Clemente, California. He lived with his mother until age 34, worked at several jobs during the past years in Orange County, California and resided with his father for the past four years in Los Angeles, California.

Jason did not marry, nor did he have children; however, he spent several years with his girlfriend Renee Cowdrick who was originally from New Jersey.

Jason had many good qualities. Out of the blue, he made you laugh from saying the silliest thing that made no sense. Often-times when he got on a subject he talked your ear off, his passion on the topic of which he spoke shining through. As a kid he liked to draw—some drawings were very detailed, others mere rough sketches. Lately he started drawing again; to quote Renee, he was “awesome”.

Jason passed away too soon. Jackie, his brother Justin, Renee and I loved him very much. The memory of Jason will be in our hearts forever. He will be missed.

His soul is now at peace.
