Mrs Linda Raye Corvelle Walker-Goodman

MAY 29, 1949 - AUG 27, 2018

Linda Raye Covelle Walker was born May 29, 1949, to Viola Walker and Kermit Alexander in Waco, Texas. She attended grade school and completed G.L. Wiley Junior High School. Linda relocated to Los Angeles, California at an early age, where she continued her education at Thomas Jefferson High School.

Linda later worked many jobs. She enjoyed being employed as a Certified Nursing Assistant (CNA).

Linda enjoyed hanging out with her only brother. She often talked about how he used to pick her up to have picnics at the park. She also enjoyed hangout with her best friends and going to concerts at the Long Beach Pike back in the day.

Linda really loved spending time with her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Her grandchildren would pick on her until she had no choice but to laugh with them. When her family got together, she would often share memories of her and Uncle Billy as children getting in trouble together in Texas. She really loved her family.

On August 27, 2018, Linda was called home to be with the Lord. She is preceded in death by her mother and father Viola Walker and Kermit Alexander and one great-grandchild Dejonae Tabari, Jr.

Linda leaves to cherish her sweet memory, her only Brother Bobby Joe Walker (Billy); three daughters: Tina Marie, Linda Michelle, and Shibisha Makeba; eleven grandchildren: Rayona, Ray Jr., Anthony, Linda Latina (Tee-Tee), Tabari, Lariesha, Jabari, Kourtney, Ronnie Jr., Jermaine, Isaac; six great-grandchildren: Jozlyn, Haley, Ayden, Chance, Legaci and Jermaine Jr.; special cousin Marie Taylor of Waco, Texas; three longtime
