Obituary

Travon Hayes was the first born child of James Lilly Jr. and Jacqueline Hayes. o August 18, 1969 in Los Angeles, California. Following the untimely passing of his father. James King stepped up and provided love, support and guidance for young Travon. Pops was always there.

Travon attended Windsor Hills Elementary School, Orville Wright Middle School and Westchester High. He also attended New Testament Church of Christ. Rev. John Plummer Jr. pastor, where he was baptized.

Travon loved and excelled at Baseball, BMX and Motocross racing. He loved his dirt bike. Travon had a calm, laid back and fun loving spirit Travon received his Class "A" Commercial Driver's License in 1990, and began his life long career as a long haul trucker. He worked for Good Times Trucking at the time of passing. His union with Andrea Wilson produced six children. Jacqueline, Javon.

Janita, Janae. Jordan and Jason. Travon met Tricia in 2008, and married on August 18, 2017, on Travon's forty-eighth birthday. Tricia recalls the joy and satisfaction Travon got from doing the simple things in life like going fishing or having a BBQ. The joyful competition of playing video games or dominos with friends and family or his trash talk when football season comes around. And of course, everybody knows, his favorite team is the Green Bay Packers. Because Travon was diabetic, he took extra good care of his feet. She remembers that look of contentment on his face after a good pedicure. Travon's favorite drinks were Remy Martin and Stella Rosa and don't forget the black and milds.

Travon was preceded in death by his parents, James Lilly Jr., and Jacqueline Hayes and his brother Tracy King. He leaves to cherish his memory his wife Tricia Hayes of Los Angeles, CA; three sons. Javon King, Jordan King and Jason King all of Lancaster, CA; three daughters, Jacqueline King of Lancaster, CA, Janita King of Las Vegas, NV
