Lisa Renae Jones

JAN 22, 1965 - JUL 11, 2021

O BITUARY

Lisa Renae Jones, affectionately known by some as “Mama Hood”, was born on January 22, 1965, in Los Angeles, California to Earnestine and Walter Jones. Lisa attended 54th Street Elementary, Audubon Middle School, and after briefly attending Whitney Young, graduated from Crenshaw High School in 1984. She also attended Los Angeles Trade Technical College, focusing on general education classes.

Lisa had several hobbies. She enjoyed dancing and listening to “oldies” music and mastered the games of spades and dominoes. Lisa cherished the company of friends, family and cooking her favorite famous dishes, spaghetti and chicken.

After many years of drug abuse Lisa overcame that obstacle. She successfully remained drug-free for 16 years and was very proud of her progress, celebrating her sobriety birthday, May 8th of each year, in faithful remembrance of that accomplishment.

Lisa loved each of children equally despite struggles occurring during her life. She provided for her children to the best of her ability. They meant the world to her, and she was very proud of each and every one of them in their own special way. Lisa was a loving, giving person. Although she did not have much, it did not prevent her from helping anyone in need. Unconditional love best describes what flowed from Lisa Jones into the lives of others. Those who knew her best loved her the same way.

Baptized at an early age, Lisa accepted Christ while attending Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church in Los Angeles. Preceding her in death are her parents, sister Diane Jones, two sons, Marcus Kyle Jones, Anthony Jones, and grandson, Rayshawn Coleman. She is survived by her 13 children, Jennifer Coleman, Michael and Ashley Thomas, Christopher and Margaret Franklin, Aaron Wilson, Ronald, Nicolette and Angelica King, Makya Jones as well as Shianne, Tyrone and TyroneGranny I am going to miss you taking care of me and all of your sweet kisses. I love you Granny. IsaiahGod Mama I cannot believe that you have left us and are never coming back. I am going to miss everything about you and your words so gentle and sweet. Thank you for being someone I can always count on. I will love you past death and after. Fly high Queen. DreedreeYou cannot protect yourself from sadness without protecting yourself from happiness. Tears come from the heart and not from the brain. People keep telling me that life goes on, but to me that is the saddest part about it. I am proud of my heart, stabbed, burned and broken, and people have been taken away from it but somehow it still works. I wish I could make you feel my sadness. Then you would know how terrible it feels. Sometimes, it is not the song that makes you emotional, it is the people and things that come to your mind when you hear it. Fly high Mommy you will always be missed. ShianneDear Mama, you had to leave but I guess your spot was ready. I know we will see each other again but until then I would do everything to make you proud. Love you Mama. BrittanyDear Granny, I love and I might not understand you are gone but I know you are in a better place. Watch over me as I make you proud of me. Now, good night Granny. I love you. Emani
