Mary Brown lit a candle in honor of Elmo.

I am so sorry for the Benjamin family loss. I am married to Earl Brown for 41 years. My name is Mary. Jessie was a good father in law to me and a good grandfather to my children. My kids and I always respected him, called him and worked with him on some of his contracting projects. I'm glad we got a chance to visit him in February before he passed and took pictures. Ruthie, I'm not a Brown. I will miss him with all of my heart. Rest In Peace Jessie.

Hello, My name is George McCall. I grew up on 67th St. Around the corner from Elmo. I am sorry for your loss. I have been trying to reach Elmo for several weeks. We talked regularly. I googled his name and location in Palmdale and I noticed his recent passing. Elmo, taught me about rough framing over 40 years ago. I am sorry that I was not able to reach him. Elmo was my second Dad. He was a hard worker and a Brilliant, talented Framing Contractor. Elmo, had a strong desire to stand by my side and sponsor me to become a Mason. I will always remember him.
