Geno Geno what can I say about you I first met you when I was living with your Auntie Margaret. First thing you said to me hey cousin you welcome me the first time you meet me you accepted me . You have always been a very happy and out going person . Your cousin Ronnie and I always had so much fun every time you invited us to your home . The last time we saw you was on Fathers Day . You still hold strong even tho you had just lost your Lil Brother Travale we told you that everything will be alright we didn't know that God had other plans for you we will miss you dearly you showed so much love to everybody you came in contact with . You know any time your Mom needs us we will be there RIH GANO affectionately known and called by your cousin Ronnie we will forever keep you in our hearts . Ronnie & Linda ❤️❤️😊🙏

Allen my special nephew. Can't believe you are gone so soon. I remember when you were born. Your mom loved you so much and the entire Ligon family. Will miss you coming to my house singing "Life, Life" and "Stand". Always wearing a big smile. The last time I saw you was such a blessing. You said I was your Special Auntie. Love you, Auntie Margaret Ligon

My big brother my forever protector. I didn't know you would leave me just 10 days after our lil brothers motorcycle accident. I know you were grieving I know how you loved us. I am proud to know you both knew God you were saved and you are now resting with lil bro. I got mama I got Jada know that I am forever changed down here and will forever miss my brother's for the rest of my life. An aortic aneurysm occurred swift and rapid once your arrival at the hospital Cedar Sinai where you worked and my gosh you were cherished they watched you sleep away peacefully the Dr. mentioned. This gives me comfort knowing you didn't suffer as our lil brother passed instant as well. It was time God's time. I will stand and trust God in the midst of my grieving. Ecclesiastes 3:4
