O bituary

Claiborne Phillips was born in Shreveport, Louisiana on June 7, 1952 to Edna Johnson and Solomon Phillips. He moved to Compton California at the age of seven with his mother Edna, and his brother James and Walter (from Edna's previous marriage) and their step father George Frazier, who had more children with Edna. That union was blessed with four more children: Alvin, Anthony, Sonya, and Hugh. Claiborne also shares 6 other siblings from his father Solomon who reside in Texas.

Claiborne was a hard worker, who dedicated most of his service in the trucking industry, with the main and longest employment being with "The Parkers."

Claiborne received Christ at a young age. He joined Macedonia Baptist Church where he serviced on the Usher's ministry for a short time. Claiborne continued to be a service to those around him. Claiborne was the life of any party, and always managed to show up for his friends and family.

After retirement Claiborne enjoyed watching sports, spending time with his family and friends, and most of all playing dominos! Dominos could have been his second job. In fact, he acquired his nickname "Bone" from his friends of the neighborhood, in whom he used to always play with.

Claiborne ALWAYS lit up the space he was in! My mischievous handful, you were such a vibrant soul. The world is a bit boring without you in it. Just one of your wives and the many women that loved you. lol. Connie. See you later gator
